A question for adults to ask children

How do you think Mary felt when the angel told her that she was going to have such a special baby?

Do you think Mary was a good choice?

Even before Gabriel had told her about the baby, she was surprised by his greeting. Mary never expected to be chosen for a special task by God. Perhaps this is what made her such a good choice. It must have been scary to be visited by an angel and to be given such a big important mission but Mary trusted in God and was obedient, saying "let this happen to me as you say." These words are very similar to the ones that Jesus spoke in the garden of Gethsemane before going to the cross, perhaps God chose Mary because he knew that she would raise her son to be obedient and servant-hearted like she was.

What is the best thing about being a parent?

A prayer to say together

Dear God,

Thank you for the story of Mary who you chose to be the mother of your son Jesus. Help us to learn from her example, to be obedient and servant hearted as we live for you.

Help us to be brave as we face scary and uncertain times, trusting in you to protect and guide us. Help us to praise and worship you in the middle of the challenges we face.

This Christmas may we listen to your voice and seek for ways to serve you in our families and communities, offering our lives to you in obedience just as Mary did.

Amen.

Family Activity 1

Mary was obedient saying "I am the servant of the Lord. Let this happen to me as you say!". Play a game of Simon says together, children might like to take it in turns to be the leader. You might like to talk together about what it means to be obedient and to commit ourselves to serving God.
